are life's lessons and how we respond to them.

It is important to respond with brevity,

Dear Classmates,

We are going to be compiling a list of names, addresses , email addresses and phone numbers to give to everybody at or before the reunion.. Unfortunately, we failed to ask for your phone number on your information sheets. If you want us to put your phone number on our list, please add that to your information sheet when you send it to me. If you have already sent me your information sheet and want to include your phone number on our lists, please send me a simple email with the phone number(s).

For our female classmates , who got married and changed their names, please put your married name on the email as that is how your name is indexed.

I am very sorry for this inconvenience but thought it best to correct it sooner than later.

If I do not get a response and you do not add your phone number on your information sheets, I will take that as you do not want your phone number listed.

Thank you.

Dear George,

This has been wonderful: the names, pics, addresses-WOW! Re-capturing once again, those idealized romantic memories of the Flying L's. Were we not just the very best ever!!

The 50th Reunion has been an event to contemplate for several years. Now it's almost here and it seems as I must miss the whirlwind of activities and the fun of seeing everyone. First, it was a definite, "yes" which became, "maybe" and now, events seem to indicate, "no".

Please find enclosed a check to be used as needed.

You all have done a great job-locating and organizing. The e-mail addresses are truly appreciated and let me not forget to mention the pictures!

The Memoriam listing is just beyond sad--classmates--the feeling was always that we would just all assemble together once again. Yes, older, certainly, but ALL of us together once again and we would re-capture the memories of the spring and summer that was 1959.

Thanks again for all of the e-mails.

Bob and I married June 20, 1961 and have been in ministry with the United Methodist Church up and down the east coast of Florida from then until 1992 when he took early retirement. We lived in the Jacksonville/Ponte Vedra Beach area from 1974 until 2006 serving churches and various other occupations for me including dental hygiene, real estate, construction firm office manager and church secretary in the Episcopal Church. In 2000 Bob & I started a interdenominational church at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL. where we now live in an active seniors community. The church has its own building and a co-pastor now so that we can travel more (so far we've been to China, Sweden, Italy, Switzerland, Israel, Egypt, England & Mexico).

2009: FIFTY YEARS AFTER '59

Kathy Coffman Davis

This "Flying L" flew to Northwestern University where she fell in love with the school and with her future husband, Don Davis. I married Don in 1964, just before his last year at Columbia Law School.

During our 45-year sojourn together we successively lived in New York, Illinois, Sweden, Washington D.C., New York (again) and finally California where we raised our two children, Christine and Don III. In the Golden State, Don practiced international corporate law, and I directed the Management Communication Program at the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

It's been a great ride through life thus far!

I can live with a lot or a little. A lot is better.

I survived the loss of a child.

I love living ocean front with sunrises, sunsets, wine, right whales and loggerhead turtles.

I enjoy other cultures and no longer see white, educated people as superior.

I respect all religions and treasure finding those places where we share similar beliefs.

I know that marriage is not easy but it is worth the work to end my life with my old friend.

I know that a weekly massage helps a lot with the stiffness of old age. (So does happy hour and celebex).
